Established in Norwich in 1917, M+A Partners is a major independent firm of chartered accountants, tax specialists and business advisers.

Our Norfolk-based firm is led by nine partners who are some of the most high profile and well-respected experts in their fields locally.

Mary-Anne Sargeant has been the Partner of our Attleborough office since 2010. Mary-Anne and her team provide professional accountancy and tax advice for a broad spectrum of clients, from brand new start-ups to well established family and owner managed businesses and from private individuals to companies.

M+A Partners Attleborough is part of the local business community and builds relationships with clients to understand their immediate and long-term needs. A wide range of services are offered from making the move to self-employment; setting up a limited company; optimising personal and business tax reliefs; to of course dealing with the preparation of accounts, tax returns and VAT returns.

M+A Partners Attleborough office management team includes:

Mary-Anne Sargeant - Partner

Mary-Anne Sargeant joined M+A Partners in 2003, and became a Partner in 2006. Prior to joining the firm, Mary-Anne had trained and worked in three other accountancy firms in Norfolk.
